STOPPAGE OF WORK AT THE COLLIERIES LONDON, February 20th.

It is now almost certain that collieries employing altogether about a quarter of a million men will stop work on the rath festant, but it is hoped that a week's closing will exhaust the present stocks. In consequence of the threatened stoppage, the prices of coal have already riren.

THE BERLIN UNEMPLOYED. All was quiet in Berlin on Sunday last.

THE COAL TRADE.

March 1st. The Daily News says that the stoppage of work at the collieries is an attempt at a combination by masters and men for a colossal coal ring. In consequence of the movement prices of coal are rising rapidly.

SAYS the San Francisco Chronicle:-"There will be no war with Chile, but it is safe to say that some of the incidents connected with the late unpleasantness will not soon be forgotten. For instance, we shall not speedily forget the utterances of the British press on the subject of our relations with Chile, or the virulent criticism of our course."

THE Sultan of Turkey, through the Grand Vizier, recently began a suit for libel against La Rane, a comic paper of Bologus, Italy, for publishing caricatures of his Majesty. "THE END JUSTIFIES THE MEANS. TO THE EDITOR OF THE "HONGKONG TELEGRAPH." Sin. In your leading article in the Hongkone Telegraph of March 8th you use the stale old libel against the Jesuits "that the end justifies the means." Why not give us a rest? I thought every educated and well-read person knew that to be a libel, and if you do not know it, all I can say is that I dely you to prove it from any of their authorised works or constitutions, and I am ready to lay a wager with you on the subject, that the interpretation which I believe you would have us believe of the "end Justifies the means "-wiz; that to attain a good work or object justifies the performance of sin to attain the good work or object-is not and never has. been the watchword of the Jesuits for any other Society in the Catholic Church. I am, Sir,

Your's faithfully,

Hongkong, 9th March, 1892. [We regret being unable to accept our correspondent's proffered wager, as the new Gambling Ordinance blocks the way; nor can we enter into the very wide question "Fairplay " would like to raise as to the true definition of what would be see in the atlainment of a good work or abject. The columns of a public newspaper are scarcely the medium for the discussion of what would inevitably resolve itself into an acrimonious, unsatisfactory and profitless religious controversy: therefore our correspondent will have to be contented with a very brief explanation, which, so far as we are concerned, must be final. The motto of the Jesuits, approved by Pope Paul III in the year 1539, is Ad majorem Del gloriam (to God's greater glory), and the obligations of the Order are practically similar to those of all other

Roman Catholic religious orders, with the addition that the obligation of obedience to a

The familiar phrase, "the end must justify the means" appears in Prior's "Hans Carvel," written some two hundred years ago, and very probably it may be found in the works of some of the Greek or Roman writers before the beginning of the Christian Era.—Ed. Hongkong Telegraph.

THE LIGHT UNDER THE BUSHEL TO THE EINTOR OF THE "HONGWONG TELEGRAPH." SIR.—From time to time we see notices in the papers feelleaving that the Hon. E. R. Belilios is a very generous man, as Lady Robinson has pointed out; for he gives thousands of dollars towards building hospitals, schools, etc., and deserves great praise for his liberality.

The Jews have no proper synagogue in this colony, though the community is large one; but it is poor, and Mr Belillos is about the only rich man among them. There is no Jewish charity organisation, as there is in almost every part of the world; in fact, the Jewish community of Hongkong have no institutions at all. If Mr. Belilios would keep a little-only a little-of his abundant charity at home, it would be appreciated more highly, if less publicly

"It would not be public, so he will not do it. Any not of generosity that will get into the papers, and he praised by the Governor and the great people, he will do, but not a thing that would be quiet and unknown; It is said Mr. Helillos is anxious to be made a knight, or to get some sort of decoration and title; and that is what he gives all this money for. He is one of those who would give all they have to get a title, and would not give a cent to any charity which would not help his ambition.

Hongkong, March roth, 1802.

[It is always risky and often gossly unjust for one man to impute motives for the actions of another. Succes are not likely to encourage generosity; and even were they justified, even if selfaggranditement was the object of all these gifts-a' man deserves to get what he works for and pays for-even should they be the baubles of paitry distinction or decoration.-

THE DISCOVERY OF WINE

Wine is reputed to have been discovered by Iemsheed, the founder of Persepolls, the famous capital of ancient Persia. He was a great lover of grapes, and, in order to have them all the year round, had large quantities packed away in enormous earthen jars. After standing for some time one of the jars was opened and the Jemsheed imagined that the resultant liquid was poisonous and accordingly had it placed in
